

Assumptiontide Pilgrimage

On August 15th 2024, (The Feast of the Assumption) Our Lady of the Waters and the Wye will again float down the river from Hay to Hereford (via Bredwardine and Moccas) in a call for action against the heavy pollution in our beloved river and invoking Our Lady to join with us in praying for the proper care of creation....

8.30am: Mass at St Mary's, Hay

9am: Procession from St Mary's Church, Hay-On-Wye

9.30am: Launch from beneath Hay bridge

4pm: Arrival at Bredwardine bridge (Bridge over troubled water played by musicians)

5-6pm: Tea at Moccas village hall (£10 prior booking required: please call Rachel Jenkins on 01981500726)

6.30-7.30pm: Gregorian chant at Moccas church by the Monks of Belmont Abbey.

On August 16th at 9am, the voyage proceeds from Bredwardine to Hereford Cathedral, arriving by 5pm for 5.30pm Evensong in the Lady Chapel.

On August 17th at 9.30am there will be a procession to All Saints Church for coffee and cake (10-11am), before the voyage continues from Hereford Cathedral to Hoarwithy Church for Evensong at 5.30pm.
